

Cohasset Churches

Community

South Shore Christian Community (NonDenominational), 7 Depot Court, 383-6683. Communion services 6:15 a.m. Mon.-Fri., 8 a.m. Sat. and Sun. Counselling available by appointment. Public classes Thursday eve at 8 p.m.

Congregational

Second Congregational Church in Cohasset (United Church of Christ), 43 Highland Ave. 383-0345. The Rev. John Benbow. Sunday services at 10 a.m. Church School at 10 a.m. Nursery and child care provided.

First Parish

First Parish Church in Cohasset (Unitarian-Universalist), 23 North Main St. 383-1100. The Rev. Edward Atkinson. Sunday services at 10:30 a.m. in the meeting house on the Common. Church School at 10:15 a.m. in the parish house across the street.

St. Anthony's

St. Anthony's Church, Summer and South Main Streets. 383-0219. The Rev. John J. Keohane, pastor. The Rev. Charles R. McKenny, SJ, associate. Saturday mass at 5 p.m. Sunday masses at 7, 9:30 and 11:30 a.m. Daily mass at 7 a.m., Saturday at 8 a.m. Sacrament of penance Saturday from 4 to 5 p.m.

St. Stephen's

St. Stephen's Parish (Episcopal) South Main Street 383-1083. The Rev. Richard Muir. Sunday services at 8 and 10 a.m. Nursery care provided for 10 a.m. service.

United

Beechwood Congregational United Church of Christ, Church Street, 383-0808. Rev. Robert Campbell. Sunday Services 9:45 a.m. Nursery care provided, Church school 9:30 a.m.

Edition 24 Of Arts Festival

The 24th Annual South Shore Arts Festival will be held from June 30 through July 8 at the South Shore Art Center in Cohasset.

The juried show includes the categories of oils and acrylics, drawings, prints, watercolors, pastels, sculpture, photography, and original crafts. there will be a $100 cash prize for each category.

The painting, sculpture, and craft jurors are Dr. Stephen B. Andrus, Ms. Marilyn Hoffman, and Mr. William Wyman. Dr. Andrus is the director of Impressions Workshop and Impressions Gallery in Boston.

Ms. Hoffman is the director of the Brockton Art Center-Fuller Memorial, having served as Curator from 1971 to 1973. She has been associated previously with the museum of Fine Arts, Boston, Brown University, and the Metropolitan Museum of New York.

Mr. Wyman, a well-known potter who has exhibited all across the United States and Europe, is currently on the faculty of the School of the Museum of Fine Arts. His work is in the permanent collections of many museums and universities, including the Smithsonian Institution, Mass. College of Art, Museum of Contemporary Crafts, New York. In Boston, Mr. Wyman's work is shown by Impressions Gallery.

The photography jurors are Mr. Peter Anderson and Mr. Michael Weymouth. Mr. Anderson is a widely traveled photo-journalist whose career started during World War II with the British Army film unit in Malta and West Africa. He has worked in the Middle East, South America, Central America, and the Caribbean. His work has been used in Time, Life, and The Saturday Evening Post.

Mr. Weymouth is a graphic designer, specializing in annual report photography and design. He has won many awards for his work, including the Hatch Awards in Boston, and the Boston Advertising Club Art Director's show. His work has also been chosen for the Mead Library of Ideas.

Artists who wish to exhibit can obtain entry forms at the South Shore Art Center at 103 Ripley Road, Cohasset. Works should be delivered to the Art Center on Thursday, June 7th from 7 - 9 p.m., or Friday, June 8 from noon to 4 p.m.

A new feature to the Festival is the 1st Annual Student Film Festival to be held on July 7th at the Cohasset Town Hall. Entries will be accepted in 16mm and super 8 film and will be divided by age (grades 1-6, 7-9, 10-12). Films should be brought to the art Center on Saturday, June 9th between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Student Film Festival jurors are Ms. Gail Banker, who teaches film Animation at the Cambridge Center for Adult Education, and Ms. Stacey Bressler, Field Coordinator of Media Services for Mass. Educational TV.

The festival will be held at the South Shore Art Center this year, not at the Cohasset Common as in previous years. This is due in part to the expense of renting tents. It is hoped that the 25th Anniversary Show will be back on the Common next year.

For further information contact the Art Center at 383-9548.

CRAFT DISPLAY for annual spring arts and crafts show are displayed by program director Judy Volungis. (Greg Derr photo)

Obituaries

Frances Downes

A funeral Mass was celebrated Monday in St. Anthony's Church for Frances Downes, 95, who died Thursday at the Ripley Road Nursing Home after a long illness.

A life-long resident of Cohasset, she attended Cohasset schools and was a graduate of the Chandler School, Boston.

Before her retirement 50 years ago, Miss Downes was employed as a secretary in Boston.

She was a member of the Cohasset Historical Society, the Cohasset Women's Club, the Womens' Republican club of Norwell, and was a charter member of the Amateur Gardeners' Club of Cohasset.

She leaves by a sister, Eleanor T. Downs of Cohasset; and several cousins.

Burial was in St. Paul's Cemetery, Hingham.

Testimonial Set For Paul Cifrino

The recent retirement of long-time food and nutrition spokesman Paul Cifrino as executive director of the Mass. Retail Food Ass'n. has prompted friends and colleagues in the food industry to honor him with a testimonial dinner May 22 at the Woodland Country Club, Newton.

Cifrino who had been executive director of Mass. Grocers, which represents every major food retailer in the Commonwealth and about 1000 small, independent retailers since 1974, has been associated with the food industry all his life. From 1945 to 1967, he was president of Supreme Markets which became part of the Purity Supreme supermarket chain, and Cifrino became chairman of its board for two years.

Between 1970 and 1975, Cifrino served with the U. S.

AID program in India as chief of the food and nutrition division, in the nutrition department of the Harvard School of Public Health and as executive director of the Carroll Center For The Blind.

A Harvard graduate, Cifrino has been retail food industry liaison to the White House Conference on Food and Nutrition, director of the National Food Chain Association and the Supermarket Institute and has lectured and written extensively on food marketing and nutrition.

Presently, Cifrino teaches a course on food and nutrition at the Boston Center for Adult Education and serves, by appointment of the governor, on the Massachusetts Nutrition Board and as a board member of the United Nutrition Education Foundation.

Cifrino resides on Jerusalem Road.

Art Signup Time

Enrollments are now being taken for an outdoor Painting Workshop with well-known Artist Rosalind Farbush on Saturday, May 19th through the South Shore Art Center at 103 Ripley Road in Cohasset.

The one-day session will begin at 10 a.m. and end at 3:30 p.m. with a break for lunch. Students should come prepared to paint in their choice of medium suitable for outdoor work. Ms. Farbush will both demonstrate and critique the student's work stressing color, form, technique and composition.

Rosalind Farbush has exhibited at Boston City Hall, the Concourse Gallery, Brandeis University and has won awards for many years in the Boston area. She teaches at the School of the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston as well as teaching College Credit Courses at the South Shore Art Center.

For further information on this workshop and other Center offerings, call 383-9548 Monday through Friday between 12 - 4 p.m.

Portuguese Festival At CCC

Saturday, May 19th will bring the Portuguese Festival to the Community Center for its First Annual Fete.

Beginning at 10 a.m. there will be games and pony rides for the kids, craft tables and a flea market with many members setting up their own tables. Lunch will feature a Portuguese grille with wine and beer to be served throughout the day.

Entertainment in the afternoon will include a movie featuring Portugal and Portuguese folk dancing will be performed on the Common by the Encantos Folclorico in native costume.

In the evening a Portuguese dinner will be served and the folk dancers will perform for the diners. After dinner raffle winners will be announced with some of the top prizes being two seasons tickets to the Music Circus, dinner for two at many of Cohasset's fine restaurants and over 10 pounds of lobster donated by Cohasset's own lobstermen.